Sailing holidays in Italy

Tuscany

Marina di Scarlino is the ideal starting point for a sailing holiday exploring the coastline and the green islands scattered across the blue of the Tuscan Archipelago: Elba, Giglio, Capraia, Montecristo, Pianosa, Giannutri and Gorgona. It is 16 miles from Elba Island and 60 miles from Corsica.

Sardinia

The turquoise sea of Sardinia is astonishingly beautiful. Marina di Cannigione is only a few miles from the most popular destinations for sailing lovers: Maddalena Archipelago, Caprera, Costa Smeralda, Corsica and the Gulf of Asinara.

Amalfi Coast

Choosing a sailing holiday through the Gulf of Naples and along the Amalfi Coast means discovering enchanting locations: Sorrento, Positano, Amalfi, Capri, Ischia, Procida, places unique in the world. The starting point is Marina di Stabia in the centre of the Gulf of Naples.

Sicily

Between sea and history, Sicily is one of the perfect destinations if you choose a sailing holiday. Sailing around the Aeolian archipelago is an unforgettable experience. Portorosa is the closest base to the Aeolian Islands, only 15 miles away.
